

Training Federal Employees for Mission Success

Traditional methods of knowledge transfer are inadequate in today's fast-paced environment. They cannot scale to accommodate unforeseen variables and the speed of the future. Because delivering impactful content is critical to organizations, scalable technology platforms grouped with experts in delivery and coupled with leaders in the subject matter is the path of the future, and this is what Apprio offers.

Apprio's Learning Solutions use customized learning platforms and leverage the latest technology to help agencies to overcome programmatic and personnel obstacles through innovative solutions and effective learning interventions.

We provide specific learning programs for organizations to empower their employees with the most up-to-date knowledge and skills to carry out their missions. Whether you're looking for increasing the knowledge base of employees, improving employee performance or developing tomorrow's leaders, Apprio's wide variety of learning solutions can help you to achieve your goals.

Apprio and federal agencies succeed together due to our commitment to excellence.

Apprio Professional Development Services

Apprio has an extensive library of off-the-shelf programs that deploy online and live delivery methods. Our library includes more than 300 programs in six subject categories, ranging from Management & Leadership to Human Resources. We can tailor existing coursework to an agency's specific needs or develop new courses from scratch.

We assist agencies in developing the talent they need to accomplish their missions efficiently, effectively and economically. We have been building in-person and online learning solutions for 30 years, helping federal agencies provide their employees with convenient, high-impact learning solutions.

Flexible Delivery Methods

Our professional development programs enable federal agencies to select their preferred methods of instruction, including virtual classroom, classroom-based, self-paced online and blended learning.

Flexible Learning Solutions

We can design, develop and deliver a program based on your unique requirements. This may include our content, your content or a combination of both, including off-the-shelf, custom off-the-shelf and new course development.

Publications

Learning Solutions offers a series of informative publications on a variety of topics related to human capital management, training and shared services.
